

Bhavini Doshi

Eagleton Undergraduate Associate 2005

Assistant Corporation Counsel, Department of Law, City of Jersey City

Bhavini A. Doshi, assistant corporation counsel, serves as senior legal, policy and risk advisor to the City of Jersey City on environmental remediation, clean-tech, complex procurement and sustainability. She leads and advises teams of policy-makers, agency heads, engineers, consultants, architects and risk managers to successful project completion. Prior to joining the City, Ms. Doshi worked for Decotiis, Fitzpatrick & Cole, LLP, where she advised public and private entities in commercial litigation, public finance and renewable energy procurement. Ms. Doshi has volunteered her time and policy guidance on numerous Boards, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for the New Jersey Council for the Humanities, the Board of the Directors of the New Jersey State Bar Association, Environmental Section, and as general counsel to the Immigrant Affairs Commission of Jersey City. Ms. Doshi was an undergraduate associate at the Eagleton Institute of Politics and Institute for Women's Leadership, and a professional fellow with LEADNJ and the State Bar Leadership Academy (ongoing). Ms. Doshi completed her J.D. at Boston College Law School and is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York.